Restrict Thesis Release Date

Restriction or Embargo on the release of your thesis contents
It is the intention of the University of Toronto that there be no restriction on the distribution and publication of theses. However, in exceptional cases, the author, in consultation with the thesis supervisor and with the approval of the Chair of the graduate unit, shall have the right to postpone public access for a period of up to two years from the date of the student's convocation.

Restricting the release date requires original signatures of both the author and the Chair of the author's graduate unit. The original of this form must be submitted to the Doctoral or Masters Office of the School of Graduate Studies.

Publication by U of T Libraries and the National Library of Canada is hereby postponed until:

Release Date: __________________________

which is: □ one year after convocation
or ☑ two years after convocation

Author: NILESH TALELE

[Signature]

Author's Signature

NILESH TALELE

Name - print

16th April, 2015

Date of signature

Graduate Unit Chair:
Restriction of the release date of this thesis is authorized for reasons which seem appropriate to me:

[Signature]

Chair's Signature

[Name]

Name - print

[Graduate Department]

April 17, 15

Date of signature