Fig. S1 Fit to the von Bertalanffy growth model using observed survey data from seven populations of flathead catfish. Black line – posterior mean; grey area – 95% credible interval; red dots – observed survey data. The estimated parameter values from the fitted model are used as “true” parameter values to create the true populations in the simulation.